

Jobs In The Woods Watershed Restoration Program
Cost Share and In-Kind Contributions by Organization
From 1995-2004

January 2005

The following table lists the dollar value of Jobs in the Woods (JITW) Watershed Restoration Program allocations and cost share and in-kind contributions provided for funded projects. Information is listed by the type of organization our project partners represented. The JITW Program in California and southern Oregon leveraged cost share dollars in excess of 100 percent of their total program allocations.

Organization	JITW Program Allocation	Cost Share and In-Kind Contributions from Partners
City Government	$16,345	$68,380
County Government	$50,000	$65,590
Industrial/Commercial Landowners	$226,715	$828,013
Non-Profit and Conservation Organizations	$1,969,298	$258,576
Soil and Water Conservation Districts, RCDs	$1,415,876	$128,234
State Agencies	$154,931	$3,980,076
Tribal Governments	$1,086,640	$454,121
Watershed Groups	$625,143	$110,735
Individual Landowners	$481,447	$740,947
Federal Agencies	$360,500	$2,688,499
Other	$0	$21,542
TOTALS	$6,386,895	$9,323,171